Wilhelmus was born in 1691 and christened in the Solingen Reformed Church. He was a weaver by trade. In 1714, he became a member of the Church of the Brethern. On February, 1717, he and 5 other members of the church were arrested and taken to Dusseldorf to be tried. When all 6 men refused to recant their beliefs, they were sentenced to hard labor at Julich. (the prison still stands to this day) While imprisoned, Wilhelmus learned to make buttons, which they sold for some of the goods they needed to survive. He also composed some 400 hymns, whil in prison. (Some of which were later published in 1720, in "Spiritual Hymnal for All Lovers of Truth") On November 20, 1720, he and others were released, and settled in the Netherlands. There he met Veronica Bloom/Bloem. They were married in 1723. In June 1729, Wilhelmus and Veronica along with 58 other Brethern Families sailed for America aboard "The Allen" with James Craigie, MAster. They arrived in Philadelphia September 15, 1729. They settled in Montgomery County and reared all their children. Then in 1737, they obtained 150 acres in Coventry Township, Chester County, where they stayed until 1742. At that time some 45 families decided to move further west to Conewago Creek (about 14 miles west of York). Wilhelmus is thought to have died in 1755 and is buried in Adams County. Some time after that, the remainder of his family is thought to have moved to Cumberland County (which became Franklin County in 1784) In 1762, Veronica shows on the tax lists for this county.

Dear Cousin Leann,

Yes it is Christine that I worked with. She wrote a beautiful genealogy of her immediate line. You and I are also cousins. James Sanks Knepper b 1829 Washington County, MD, his father was Andrew Knepper b 12 MAr 1803 near Quincy in Franklin Co, PA, His father David Knepper b 5 Jun 1759 in Cumberland, Antrim Twp, Franklin County, PA, His father was Abraham b 12 Aug 1734 in (Same as above), his father was Wilhelmus Knepper b 27 Oct 1691 in Unnersburg, Ger, his father was Hans Peter b 1658 in Solingen, Westfallen, Rheinland, Germany, his father Tilman Knepper was born 1627 in Germany. I will send you a few stories E-mail or any other info you want. My address is Stanly D. Knepper, 14105 Osborne Avenue NE., MARlboro Twp, Alliance, Ohio 44601-9788. I will keep you and Chris notified of any new cousins in your line if we keep me current on your e-mail address.

Wilhelmus Knepper is listed among the male passengers above the age of 16 years in the list of passengers on the ship Allen carrying 59 Paletines and their families which sailed from Rotterdam July 07, 1729 and landed at Philadelphia on September 15, 1729. (Rupp's Collection of 30,000 Immigrants into Pennsylvania)

(Note: Need to send corrected genealogy to Stanley for father of James S. Knepper)

Cousin Stan story follows:

"Back To The Old Country"

Wilhelmus Knepper was the son of Peter Knepper and Anna Maria (Fisher) Knepper, who were your GGGGGG Grandfather and GGGGGG Grandmother. Clemens was Wilhelm's brother, Wilhelm was chistened in the Solingen Reformend Church on 27 Oct 1691.

Though the Treaty of Westphalia in 1648 ended the Thirty Years War, life remained tumutuos and the country was seething with religious ferver and rife with religious persecution. Wilhelm was a weaver by trade and 1714 be became a member of the Dunkard Church. This church which became the Brethern Church as we know it today, was the focus of much controversy due to its beliefs in adult baptism. According to the Treaty of Westphalia only infant baptism was to be practiced by the three authorized religions (Roman Catholic, Lutheran, and Reformed). Wilhelm and five others, having been charged with this "crime" were marched to Dusseldorf, (about 15 miles) where they were put on trial for starting a new doctrine. The Catholics wanted them executed, the Lutherans were for the galleys, and the Reformed wanted them to suffer hard labor at Julich. In the end the Reformed Church had their way and the ruling was for hard labor at Julich in a dungeon four feet deep under ground with walls about 10 feet thick. Clemens, our GGGGG Grandfather, often visited his brother during the four years Wilhelm was imprisoned. William wrote many hymns (about 400) which were later printed in the "European Brethern Hymnal, Spiritual Hymnal for all Lovers of Truth". In the end a Dutch theologian named DeBlois, who had worked hard for their release, was the person who should receive credit for the fact that the 6 men did not spend the rest of their lives in that filthy hole.

The only way Wilhelmus and the others could get out of prison was their promise to leave the country. This led to members of our direct line coming to the new country (John Godfrey Knepper) and the prospering of the family that ended in our creation. Wilhelm was so weak when he was finally released that a cart was required to carry him. The cell was so small that he had to stay in the fetal position. Wilhelm went to Friesland, Holland where he met Veronica Bloom/Bloem. They were married on the 25th of January, 1723. On the 11th of September 1729 (disputed date), William, Veronica, and possibly a son named Joshua (birthdate uncertain) set sail for Penn's Land (Pennsylvania) on the ship Allen.

If you visit a Brethern Church, you will find many of our relatives listed in church records. Many times it is spelled wrong which is something that still happens today. You can be quite proud that our family was involved with these gentle, peaceful, and humble people. It is still my choice of religion to this day, six generations later. Some of the family members married outside their church and some such as sMary Knepper (daughter of Wilhelm) married George Adam Martin who was one of the roots of the German Baptist Church.

Our family roots go back to the home land along the Rhine river in Nordrhine, Westphalen, Germany. The exact place is near the city of Solingen which is about 15 miles southeast of Dusseldorf. Solingen is known for its cutlery even to this day/ The best pocket knife I have ever owned and carry faithfully bears the inscription on the blade, "Solingen Steel"....

If you wish to read a better account of our origins you might get a copy of National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol 73, Number 2, June of 1985. Much of the above information was gathered from this document. Stanly D. Knepper[Privatized Descendants of Tilman Knepper 08-08-01.FTW]

The reason I am telling you this story is the fact that without these events you would likely not exist today. The only way Wilhelm and the others could get out of prison is their promise to leave the country. Notes for Abraham Knepper:

Abraham's will was written May 21, 1811 and was put on record March 01, 1824 in Chambersburg, PA.

He was a Revolutionary War Soldier serving in the 5th Company of the 1st Battalion of Cumberland County militia. (PA. Archives, Fifth Series, Volume VI, pages 88-90).

A letter (in German) written by him in 1789 is now (1936) in possession of Myrtle Knepper, Cape Girardeau, MO.

From the notes of Gary Knepper:

Abraham was a farmer who had approx. 440 acres at the time of his death. He served in the Revolutionary War as a private in the 8th Battalion, 5th Company of the Cumberland County Militia under Captain Samuel Rogers, in 1779 and 1780. Abraham built his home, a stone 2 story home, which is still standing today, along the road between Mont Alto and Quincy, and is known as Knepper's Station. Upon his death, he left all property to Catherine, according to his will. But upon her death, the home was to go to Samuel, who was to pay shares to the remaining children. The home remained in the Knepper family for many generations. Abraham and Catherine are buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, which is a short distance west of their home. HISTORY AND EVENTS OF SOLOMON KNEPPER FAMILY as recorded by Brint Knepper, grandson of Aaron Knepper, son of Solomon.

Solomon was born April 10, 1805, the son of Peter Knepper, 2nd and Regina Wolf Knepper. He was born in the Quincy area of what is now Franklin County, Pa..

Solomon married Esther Yaukey and lived in the Quincy Area, the McConnellsburg Area, and the Center Church Area of what is Taylor Twp., Fulton County now. He died Sept 22, 1877. Esther was born, died Sept 6, 1896. They are buried in the front row of the Center Cemetery. According to obituaries these children were all born in the Quincy Area:

Name	Born	Died	Interred
Sarah	Aug 16, 1846	Dec 13, 1907	Clear Ridge
Amanda	Apr. 11, 1848	July 2, 1933	Union
Charlotte	Aug 22, 1849	Mar 13, 1923	Oak Ridge
Aaron	Dec 28, 1850	Jan 1, 1938	Center
David	May 29, 1853	Sept 11, 1942	Center
Peter	Apr. 10, 1855	March 14, 1937	Center

During the Civil War they lived near the reservoir above McConnellsburg. Aaron, my grandfather, called it the Peter Morton farm.

My brother, Harry told about Aaron, his granddad. Aaron as a 12 year old boy in the summer of 1863, having some horses at a blacksmith shop in McConnellsburg when they heard the Confederates were coming. Likely this was June 18, 1863. Aaron must have taken the horses from the blacksmith shop to his home and gotten the other horses. Aaron told me that he and John Cook, a neighbor boy, took the horses of both families down across the fields to the road. This would be on route 522 near where Thomas's Chevrolet Garage now stands. A couple of Rebs on horses took after them but turned back as they got near the road because Union Troops were on the road marching toward McConnellsburg. Aaron told about bullets striking the rail fence as they opened the fence onto the road. The boys fled north with the horses and stayed in the Center Church area of Taylor Twp. while the battle of Gettysburg was fought.

John Cook's home was the old log house with a stone chimney to the right of the new U.S. 30 as you start up Tuscarora Mountain from route 522. I asked Aaron where they stayed with the horses. He said that he was not sure but he thought it must have been in the woods at the Harper Tract. The Harper Tract lays between Center Church and Waterfall. There were two sets of farm buildings located there.

No Kneppers lived in Taylor Twp. then. There was a public road from just northwest of Center Church thru an area to a lane on 655 just below where Elizabeth Cutchall lived. Aaron said that the people of that area were good to them. They had heard of a big battle being fought across the Tuscarora Mountain. People, who had sons in the war, were worried that some might be killed in the battle.

When the boys heard it was safe they took the horses back to their homes.

After Aaron and the Cook boys fled north with the horses there were different Confederate raids and a fire fight in McConnellsburg. On June 18, 1863, the day, most likely, the boys had fled north with the horses, a raiding group led by Ferguson, under Brig Gen. Alfred Jenkins orders, raided the McConnellsburg area. Besides stores and shops being emptied by "purchases" with confederated money over $12,000 worth of cattle, over 100 horses, and several black children were taken from area farms.

On June 23, 1863 a brigade of 2500 men, 300 cavalrymen, and 6 cannons, commanded by Brig Gen George Stewart was ordered by Brig Gen. Edward Johnson to raid Mercersburg and McConnellsburg areas for more horses and cattle.

About noon June 29, 1863 a Union Scouting force of 38 men, led by Capt. Jones came to McConnellsburg from Everetts. From the opposite direction came Confederate Capt Irvine with 68 mounted men on a scouting mission ahead of Gen. Imboden's main force at Mercersburg.

When the Union Scouts reached The Fulton House they learned of Confederates coming from Mercersburg. They pretended to retreat as far west as the stream west of town.

As the Confederates reached The Fulton House, Capt. Irvine gave the order to charge. But at the intersection of the street from the courthouse he saw about 50 uniformed Union home guards from Orbisonia. Not wanting to risk an attack on their front and right the Confederates retreated toward Mercersburg. This was the time for Union Capt. Jones and his men to attack. During this attack one Union and two Confederates were killed. 32 soldiers and 33 of their horses were captured. Union Capt. Jones anticipated that this smaller contingent of soldiers would be followed by a large force of Confederates, so he withdrew. The Union soldiers, marching toward McConnellsburg, when the boys were opening the rail fence onto the road for their horses, could have been the Home Guard from Orbinsona on their way to McConnellsburg.

When the boys returned home with their horses they found the Rebs. had bivouaced on the Knepper family farm. The Knepper Mother and her daughter had been made to bake bread all night until they ran out of flour. The Confederates had butchered their hogs and a sow and her little pigs. Troops filled canteens at the spring house. An officer saw a soldier drinking milk out of a crock. He made the soldier quit drinking and place the wood lid back on the crock. Aaron and the Cook boy had taken all of the horses, except one old sway back horse into hiding. A Reb. was taking this old horse away when Peter, a small boy, came out crying not to take his horse. A sargeant saw this and told the soldier, "Let the little fellow keep his horse. The horse is no good anyway."

Another Sargeant said to Solomon, the father, "You have wagons and machinery, where are your horses?" When Solomon told him he didn't know where the horses were the Sargeant said, " You have until four o'clock to have the horses here or we will burn your house and barn." Solomon told the Sargeant he couldn't have the horses back by 4 o'clock. The sargeant snapped, "The horses back by 4 o'clock or your house and barn burn." But by 4 o'clock the Rebs were hastily moving toward Chambersburg.

The following year, June 30, 1864 the Confederates had just burned Chambersburg. They were moving back south through McConnellsburg. Their bivouac was over a mile long in Patterson's meadow, south of McConnellsburg. This time, when they learned the confederates were coming, Aaron and John Cook took the horses north again. I believe that Aaron told me they took the horses to the woods above Knobsville, most likely The Narrows.

In 1867, The Solomon Knepper family moved to the farm near Center Church, which David Knepper, his son, later acquired. After David's death it was bought by Harry Knepper, grandson of David.

[Privatized Descendants of Tilman Knepper 08-08-01.FTW]

From Correspondence:

Haven't been "genealogying" much lately, but I got info on the James Ayers family I thought I'd pass on. They first appeared in Hendricks Co. in 1840 but that census doesn't give any names other than the male head of household. In 1850, James wasn't listed with them because he was already at Sarah Jane's house as an apprentice to her father. Mary "Francis" Knepper Ayers died in 1851 as did her youngest child, the girl named Catherine. There was also a little boy named Wesley F. who must have died young because he wasn't in the 1860 census. The cemetery records we have show Lewis having died in 1852 but his is a mistake because he was enumerated in the 1860 census. Maybe that's when Wesley died, who knows?! I'll send you a printout off my computer. The only other interesting thing I found was that James Ayers and Mary had a son named John T. And my father thought he was the only one!

1850 Census for Middle Township in Hendricks Co. IN:

James Ayres, 63 b. MD
 Mary " , 44, b. MD
 William P. " ,19, b. MD
 Edwin " ,13, b. IN John T. " ,10, b. IN Lewis S. " , 9, b. IN Ann M. " , 5, b. IN Wesley F., " , 3, b. IN Ann C. " ,1, b. IN

When do you think they went west around 1837? Looks to me that William was b. 1831. Different mother??

From Fern Sembach:

He only served 6 months in the Civil War. The regiment was organized at Indianapolis Feb. 25, 1865. On the 18th it left for Nashville, Tenn. and was at once placed on duty. From that time until its muster out, the regiment was kept constantly employed in doing guard and garrison duty in the interior of Middle Tennessee. On the 5th of Sept. 1865 it was mustered out of service and proceeded to Indiana, arriving at Indianapolis on the 8th with 36 officers and 784 men for final discharge. This I got from the history of the 148th regiment.

My great grandmother, Margaret Anna Kesner has two aunts, Perlina and Diadama, known as Amy, who married Starkey brothers named Wiliam Peter and Abram. Margaret Anna was born in 1871 in Dallas Co. Mo., I believe in Buffalo Twp. and her family came from Piatt IL before the war and before that from Vermillion,IN. Perlina, Diadama and their brother Simeon, Margaret Anna's father, were born in Pendleton, W. VA. I'm not sure of the origin of the Starkeys, but they appear to have been in Vermilion and Piatt at the same time as the Kesners.-Chris Wolf

Notes for Cleone Frances Hatheway:

[Privatized Descendants of Tilman Knepper 08-08-01.FTW]

My grandmother's name was Cleone Frances Hatheway. She always said her father was very particular about the spelling of the name with an "e" rather than an "a". She was born on a farm on May 5, 1910 in Dakota City, Dakota Co., Nebraska. She was the daughter of Galen Joseph Hatheway and Lorraine Maude Knepper of South Sioux City, NE, and the granddaughter of Gurden A. Hatheway and Mary Frances Winsor of Miles, Jackson Co., IA. Cleone was married to my grandfather, Havilah Floyd Eames on September 29, 1927 in South Sioux City, Dakota Co., NE. For most of their married life, they were managers of Sprouse Reitz Variety stores in Santa Paula, Delano, and Kern City. Cleone was widowed three times. She married (2) 13 Jan 1973 John F. Asien, in Bakersfield, CA and married (3) 19 February 1990 Ray Horch, in Kauai, Hawaii. Recently, after an eight year struggle with Alzheimer's Disease, she died on January 25, 2001, and is buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery on River Boulevard, in Bakersfield, CA. Cleone and Havilah had two children: my mother, Joyce Elaine, and Havilah Le Moine, who died as an infant.
